Texas Animal Health Commission Moves Lampasas Region Office to Stephenville

AUSTIN –Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC) relocated its Lampasas Office to Stephenville, TX on April 1, 2019. This move facilitates long-term cost savings and strategically positions TAHC’s regional personnel to more effectively fulfill the agency’s mission of protecting the health and marketability of Texas’ livestock, exotic livestock and domestic and exotic fowl.

The new office is located at 942 Bluebonnet Street, Stephenville, TX 76401, and can be reached at 512-556-6277. Dr. Pete Fincher will continue to serve as the Region Director and Ann Wagner remains the region’s Supervising Inspector. At this time the region will become Stephenville, or simply SV, on maps and other agency documents. Click [HERE] to view the most recent region map.

TAHC veterinarians, livestock inspectors and support personnel will continue to be available throughout the region to work with producers and livestock markets to meet area and local needs.

For questions concerning this move, please contact your current region office or the Central Office at 800-550-8242.
